

VIOLENCE

When you hit a man, do you feel okay?
When you see him fall down to the ground

Are you proud of yourself ?
When feelings take over, violence wins

REF

Violence, don't you feel the hatred
Running through your veins? When you hit a man

Violence, you're the first thing, that the man is afraid of You're the first thing he does, without reason

Violence, don't you hear the complaints?
Future seems so dark, when you're coming to stay

I know, you're not wrong or right, cause every time
The human's hands keep choosin'

Its now the time to drop the mask
To leave the masquerade
Leave the pain behind; put a heart inside the rock
Leave a white a flag shining over the heads
There's a time to talk, and there's a time to do
And finally to the eyes of a dying man
There's no good or bad thing
But just a choice and the choice is yours before you die

A man said your life is your message
You must know what message is yours
Cause it's your present to the world
Remember, there's no good or bad things
Just a choice and the choice is yours
